A comedy thriller, Alfred Hitchcock's The 39 Steps, is packed with nonstop laughs and over 150 eccentric characters (played by four actors). The play is about a man with an ordinary life who meets a woman with a strong accent who says she's a spy. When he takes her home, she is murdered. Soon, a mysterious organization called "The 39 Steps" is hot on the man's trail in a nationwide manhunt that climaxes in a death-defying finale. A riotous blend of virtuoso performances and wildly inventive stagecraft, The 39 Steps amounts to an unforgettable afternoon of pure pleasure.

We are thinking of eating after the performance; we can be more relaxed then. We would not be collecting money for a meal, just making the reservation. We would be close to Lake Street, with many restaurants, including Venuti's, Tony Spavone's and Jameson's. Woodfield is also not far away. More details on that later...
